Agreement for Preparation at Home (if applicable)

I understand and agree that while parents are the “principal and first educators of their children” (CCC 1653), it is for the pastor to judge that children are properly disposed and suitably instructed before allowing them to receive the sacraments and that such judgment must be made in light of the minimum requirements of canon law. I understand and agree that this may require prior to the reception of the sacrament an assessment or interview given by the pastor or his catechetical leader to determine readiness, in accord with canonical norms, respecting the age and intellectual capability of each of the faithful. I, the undersigned parent/guardian, intend to use the attached catechetical materials (e.g., Catechism, textbooks, online materials, books about the saints, etc.) and practices of the faith (e.g., Mass attendance on Sundays and holy days of obligation, regular confession, the rosary, pilgrimage, corporal works of mercy, etc.) to prepare my child for the sacrament (see attachment):

I further understand and agree that the faithful have the right to receive the sacraments (can. 213) and that the sacraments cannot be denied to those who fulfill the basic canonical requirements for receiving them (can. 843 §1). Consequently, I understand and agree that if a member of the Christian faithful meets the basic canonical requirements for the reception of the sacrament, even if he/she has not fulfilled the requirements of a given parish catechetical program or diocesan expectations, he/she cannot be refused the sacrament.

I, the undersigned pastor, hereby assent to the request(s) indicated above on the first page.

Sacramental Records and Certificates

Given the frequent reception of Confirmation in large “regional gatherings” of candidates, the reception of Confirmation is to be recorded in the parish where the candidate was prepared. If the candidate was prepared at home or through a Catholic school, the reception should be recorded in the register of the candidate’s parish. Pastors and catechetical leaders, please note that the record must make explicit mention of the place where the sacrament was conferred.
